

Plant Growing Showcase

By Julian St John

First plant the seed

Then wait for it to germinate.

Then nurture your seedling

Water it just about everyday depending on the seedling and its variables.

Feed and fertilize your plant

This will usually be necessary for a plant as it begins growing and maturing nutrient rich soil and adding compost also helps the plant develop smoothly.

Finally harvest the plant or take what you need.

Repeat.

